

M.A. and M.Div. Student Budget Worksheet: 2021-2022

Denver Seminary requires F-1 students to provide attestation of funding for the first year (12 months) of their program of study. Below are budget estimates for “single” and “married” students and a blank budget column intended to be completed by the student. Costs for each line item should match the estimates unless specific reasoning is provided along with a written explanation. For information about how these estimates are established, please refer to the form entitled “Reference Guide for Seminary-estimated Costs”.

Reference Guide for Seminary-Estimated Costs

Estimates are based on market analysis of local and national prices, including enrollment in a competitive health insurance plan. Housing estimates are reflective of on-campus residency at Denver Seminary. Because estimates are based on market valuations, they are subject to change and fluctuate with the economy.

Tuition & Fees

Cost per year is based on a 3-year completion track for M.A. programs and a 4-year completion track for M.Div. programs. Students in an M.Div. program will need to maintain an average of 19-20 credit hours per year; students in M.A. programs will need to maintain an average of 18 credits per year.

Tuition.....Based on 21 credits per year at $645 per credit hour. This course load reflects a schedule of 9 credit hours during the fall and spring semesters with 3 credit hours during the intersession or summer.

Fees.....Some courses have special fees for materials and testing, but this will vary.
