Denver Seminary Library Cardholder Agreement

I will be responsible for all materials, fines or replacement costs for items not returned.

I will report lost or stolen library cards.

I will not check out books for others nor give my card to others.

I must complete the registration process in person (or via email to the library providing my student ID if I am a distance or DC student) at the Denver Seminary Library within 30 days.

I must bring identification and verification of my current address to receive a permanent library card.

(Distance students do not require a physical card but can pick one up if they are on campus or one can be sent by mail.)

I agree to the above terms and conditions.
