

MINISTRY RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Students fund their seminary education and gain experience while ministries hire quality interns.

In the Ministry Residency Program, student interns serve with ministries in part-time roles gaining practical, apprenticed learning experiences while advancing the mission and vision of those organizations.

Ministries pledge to cover a portion of student tuition costs (tax free). As a result, students receive a 10% tuition discount on the remainder of their tuition.

The Student Wins

- Acquire hands-on ministry experience
- Develop a practical philosophy of ministry
- Build ministry connections
- Minimize tuition debt
- Receive an additional 10% tuition discount from Denver Seminary

The Ministry Wins

- Create a culture of developing the next generation of leaders
- Fill the gap between volunteers and full-time employees
- Fill specific roles not requiring a full-time employee

Contact:

James Rider

Director of Advancement

james.rider@denverseminary.edu

303.762.6941